Description :

Prsentation de l'diteur" This story has the romance silly societal contretemps of a Georgette Heyer romance with the spice of good curry. The humour left me smiling and the romance was delicious." ~ Reader review Oh, why don't you have 10 stars!!! Loved these wonderfully captivating characters... Gresham was a man among men and Carolyn was spool cool. I will read this I lovely tale again. ~Reader review At long last, readers wishes are granted! Sense Sensuality: Carolines After Dark Georgian Romance is here! Everyone's favorite, ever-practical Caroline, Countess of Eskmaine returns in full force in this After Dark novel. A challenge from her sister-in-law Allegra, Duchess of Gravesmere, puts Caroline on the dance floor with the next man who asks her to dance. The irrepressible rake, Tristan, Baron Gresham is recently returned from Venice, bored with the life of a libertine. Attending a ball, he decides to ask Lady Eskmaine for a dance. Determined to teach Allegra that she is capable of handling her own affairs, Caroline accepts Lord Greshams invitation. The moment their hands touch, the attraction is undeniable. Neither knows, however, what the other is seeking. Caroline, tired of being the paragon of common sense in the family, wants to let go and live a little. The return of her old adversary, now obviously interested in her, may be just what she needs. Tristan, on the other hand, wishes to leave behind his rakish lifestyle and become a proper English gentleman.

Beautiful, intelligent and dependable Caroline fills his thoughts as the one woman with whom hed like to build that life. What happens when the immovable, sensible Caroline meets the irresistible, sensual Tristan? Will he ignite passions fires within her, giving her the release she needs? Will she bring him the contentment and love he so deeply desires? And just what is Lady Manning up to this time?
